Purifies the Blood, Renovates and Invigorates the Whole System

Its Medical Properties Are

ALTERATIVE, TONIC, SOLVENT AND DIURETIC.

VEGETINE is made exclusively from the juices of carefully selected barks, roots and herbs and so strongly concentrated that it will effectually eradicate from the system every taint of Scrofula, Scrofulous Humor, Tumors, Cancer, Cancerous Humor, Erysipelas Salt Rheum, Syphilitic Diseases Canker, Baldness at the Stomach, and all diseases that arise from impure blood Sciatica, Inflammatory and Chronic Rheumatism, Neuralgia Gout and Spinal Complaints can only be effectually cured through the blood.

For Ulcers and Eruptive Diseases of the Skin, Pustules, Pimples Blotches, Boils, Tetter, Scald Head and Ringworm VEGETINE has never failed to effect a permanent cure

For Pains in the Back, Kidney Complaints, Dropsy, Female Weakness, Leucorrhœa, arising from internal ulceration, and uterine diseases and General Debility, Vegetine acts directly upon the causes of these complaints It invigorates and strengthens the whole system acts upon the secretive organs, allays inflammation, cures ulceration and regulates the bowels.

For Catarrh, Dyspepsia, Habitual Costiveness, Palpitation of the Heart, Headache, Piles, Nervousness and General Prostration of the Nervous System, no medicine has ever given such perfect satisfaction as the Vegetine. It purifies the blood, cleanses all of the organs, and possesses a controlling power over the nervous system

The remarkable cures effected by Vegetine have induced many physicians and apothecaries whom we know to prescribe and use it in their own families.

In fact, Vegetine is the best remedy yet discovered for the above diseases, and is the only reliable Blood Purifier yet placed before the public.

UNQUALIFIED APPRECIATION.

BOSTON, Nov 18, 1875.

H R. STEVENS, Esq

DEAR SIR—During the past five years I have had ample opportunity to judge of the merit of VEGETINE. My wife has used it for complaints attending a lady of delicate health, with more beneficial results than anything else which she ever tried. I have given it to my children under almost every circumstance attending a large family, and always with marked benefit. I have taken it myself with great benefit, so that I cannot find words to express my unqualified appreciation of its goodness.

While performing my duties as a Police Officer in this city, it has been my lot to fall in with a great deal of sickness. I unhesitatingly recommend Vegetine, and I never knew of a case where it did not prove all that was claimed for it Particularly in cases of a debilitated or impoverished state of the blood its effects are really wonderful, and for all complaints arising from an impure state of the blood it appears to work like a charm, and I do not believe there are any circumstances under which Vegetine can be used with injurious results, and it will always afford me pleasure to give any further information as to what I know about Vegetine. CANNOT BE EXCELLED.

CHARLESTOWN, March 19, 1869.

H R. STEVENS

Dear Sir: This is to certify that I have used your "Blood Preparation" in my family for several years, and I think that for Scrofula or Cancerous Humors or Rheumatic Affections it cannot be excelled, and as a Blood Purifier and spring medicine it is the best thing I have ever used, and I have used almost everything I can cheerfully recommend it to any one in need of such a medicine. Yours respectfully,

MRS. A. A. DINSMORE, 39 Russell St.

A Source of Great Anxiety.

My daughter has received great benefit from the use of Vegetine. Her declining health was a source of great anxiety to all her friends. A few bottles of the Vegetine restored her health strength and appetite.

FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 24, 1876.

A RULE THAT DOES WORK BOTH WAYS.

The Democrats very eagerly felicitated themselves upon an order of the South Carolina Supreme Court that certificates should be issued to members of the Legislature who appeared on the face of the returns to be elected This was based on the rule that each house of the legislative body shall be the judge of the election, returns, and qualifications of its own members As the Legislature of South Carolina canvass the votes for Governor and Lieut -Governor the Honesty and Reform Democracy at once assumed that Republicans, fairly elected members, would get no hearing and that Hampton would be counted in without the slightest regard to outrages upon the suffrage or frauds in the returns The Board of Canvassers had made a report to the Court, although protesting against the power of the Court to interfere thus with the performance of their duties in der the laws of the State They reported that they were officially in possession of abundant affidavits and proofs showing that the elections in various precincts of Edgefield and Laurens Counties were void by reason of frauds and intimidation and violence The parties in and usurping designs of the Court having been plainly manifested, the Board decided to comply with the law peremptorily requiring them to complete their work within a period ending Wednesday noon and at once issued certificates to the Hayes and Wheeler Electors, shown to be elected over and above all the frauds, to the State State officers elected and to members of the Legislature appearing to be elected on the face of the returns except those from the two counties from which there was conclusive evidence of fraud The result is that the Legislature will still be the judge of the election of its own members, but that the candidates shown to the Board to have secured their returns by violence and fraud will not sit as judges in their own cases but will be placed on the same footing as contestants with the candidates who opposed them But the Democrats had more in view than the capture of the State for Hampton and prematurely boasted that the Legislature to be counted in by order of Moses would have the choice of a United States senator

And just here comes the reminder of that rule which works both ways The common rule of legislative bodies also obtains in the United States Senate which in its turn will be the judge of the elections, returns and qualifications of its own members and we have an idea that the majority of that body have become convinced that it is about time to insist that applicants for admission shall have been chosen under that Republican form of government which the United States are constitutionally required to guarantee A Mr La mar is now waiting outside the door with blood stained credentials from a revolutionized and terrorized State and if justice is done as we believe it will be, he would be found waiting there by any rifle-club chieftain of South Carolina who might be rewarded for zeal in the butchery of freedmen by the votes of a Legislature supported by intimidation and organized by fraud. The report of the Senate Investigating Committee on the facts of the lawless and bloody campaign by which Mississippi was revolutionized in 1875 and a Legislature secured which gave Lamar all the claim he has to a seat in the Senate would cause unmitigated horror of the public attention the absolute facts their thoughtful attention And they are beginning to see that they cannot ignore the wholesale outrage and mass acts of citizens in a portion of the country without inviting peril to the whole body politic The time has come when men who present themselves at the doors of the United States Senate with a revolver not gun and cartridges as their credentials for admission, should be sent to the rear about in an emphatic manner Too much of complaisance has already been shown to the spirit of lawlessness and the people will not submit to have the Nation disgraced by the organized ruffianism of the Unreconstructed Confederate party

And with reference to South Carolina it is pertinent to remark upon the gushing admiration just now lavished by the Democracy upon Judge Moses of that State who is revenging himself upon Governor Chamberlain for refusing to sanction his notorious son's elevation to the Bench At that time for that act, Gov Chamberlain was hailed by every Democrat in the land and the nine months are stretched to-day with plaudits for the Judge who is using his official power to get even for it Such is Democratic Honesty and Reform'

DEMOCRATIC FIGURES

It is hardly a week since the Democratic papers published those tables of majorities from all the parishes in Louisiana showing a majority of over 7,000 in the State for Tilden These they claimed to be mostly official and more than generous to the Republicans Nine parishes have been canvassed about which there has been no protest on either side In these the Democrats claimed a total majority of 1627 and gave the Republicans a majority of 3,315 or a net majority for Hayes of 1688 The actual count gives a Republican majority of 2,380 or 700 more than the Democratic "semi-official" tables At this rate the count in parishes not in dispute will about dispose of Tilden's alleged majority and in addition nearly half the parish returns will be contested for fraud

W E Chandler writes from Florida The utter folly of undertaking by a bill in equity to enjoin a State Executive against ascertaining and declaring the result of a Presidential vote, if he has the right by law to do it, is so apparent as to need no comment, but, as if to add to the absurdity, the bill has not been filed in the Supreme Court of the State, but before a little circuit court having very limited and local powers By the Constitution of Florida the Supreme Court of the State consists of the chief and two associate justices, and among the powers is given that of issuing writs of mandamus certiorari, prohibition, quo warranto, and habeas corpus There are also created seven inferior circuit courts, with special and limited powers, and it is to Judge White of one of the latter courts that the Democrats have appealed for interference with the action of the Governor and Canvassing Board

A Democratic organist coolly declares that if Tilden had received a decided majority of Electors outside of South Carolina, Louisiana and Florida, no Republican would have questioned the counting of those States for him also. It is true that more interest attaches to their votes than would be the case if the national result were not involved, but the assertion that Republicans would freely concede States which are unquestionably Republican and which were not claimed by the Democrats until the chances of Tilden grew desperate, is utterly, laughably absurd.

A POLITICAL SPOILED CHILD

[From the N. Y Evening Post.]

If politics are sometimes childish, certainly the Democratic party since the election is fairly entitled to be called a spoiled child It has set up a cry for the Presidency and it refuses to be quiet unless what it wants is given to it It does not stop to inquire whether it ought to have the Presidency—whether it has legally secured it Like other spoiled children, it is deaf to reason, it shuts its eyes to all evidence, it rejects with fierce anger any conclusion which is not in harmony with its blind and passionate desires It must have the Presidency or it will refuse to eat its breakfast—a result, indeed which could be borne by the public with equanimity, and it will break the crockery and smash the furniture—a proceeding which the public will not tolerate for a moment

We have held a close election for President and the result depends upon the votes of a small cluster of disputed States The simple question for all men of honesty and common sense is How have these States voted? It will not do for the Republicans to say that these States were substantially conceded to them by the Democrats before the election How have those States actually voted? Equally preposterous is it for the Democrats to claim Louisiana, Florida and South Carolina on the ground that Kellogg is a knave and all the election officers are scoundrels How have those States actually voted? It was possible for them to give a Republican majority even if there was not in honest office holder in any one of them It was possible for them to give a Democratic majority even if every officeholder was of spotless character Every reasonable citizen is anxious to know how they have gone, but the political spoiled child says, They must all go our way or we will make it impossible for any order loving person to live in the house

In South Carolina instead of permitting the canvassing to be done as it has been done for eight years so that the legal or illegal casting of all the votes could be ascertained—a result which ought to help the Democrats if what they have been telling us is true—the spoiled child procured from the Supreme Court an order directing the canvassers to count only the votes actually cast When a majority of these votes is found to be for Hayes the spoiled child refuses to be satisfied but insists that what it before objected to shall now be done, that the canvassers shall go behind the returns and correct them The spoiled child must have the Presidency or it will continue to make an uproar It must be admitted that the course of the Supreme Court itself is exposed to criticism There seems to have been but one question before it Is the Board of Canvassers merely a ministerial body or is it also a judicial body? Instead of deciding this question the court ordered the Board to count the votes and report the result to the Court—an unheard-of proceeding—and reserved its judgment as to what ought to be done with the returns until it should know what the returns were Some Republicans say that the object of this order was to secure a certain result if possible by going behind the returns if the returns should not show that result We do not say that this was the object but what would have been and if this thing had been done by one of Kellogg's creatures? Does the savory name of Moses help it much?

The conduct of the spoiled child in Louisiana is of the same character We have come to New Orleans it says in effect not to find out how the State has gone but to get the State for Tilden, give us the Presidency or we will scream fraud until we are black in the face — It tried to catch the Republican watchers by committing them to the plan of counting the votes actually cast When this scheme failed it pretended that it did not mean the votes actually cast —although the Democratic newspapers to-day are saying that that is just what it means It is to be supposed that the Republicans of New Orleans are as honest and as earnest for Hayes as the Democrats are for Tilden, yet the spoiled child writes to them saying 'This is all a fraud and you know it is The State has gone for Tilden and we want you to admit it It must go for Tilden Give us the Presidency

The same course is pursued by the spoiled child in Florida In the North it is going about trying to snatch an Elector here and there in true spoiled child fashion In Vermont where the people would as soon choose an Emperor as a Democratic Elector the spoiled child is trying to get the indispensable vote by a trick as contemptible as it is ineffectual Governor Hayes has said already that he would not secure the Presidency by a trick If Governor Tilden would put a stop to some of the discreditable devices in his behalf he would do a good thing

The question is Will the country consent that this political spoiled child shall have the Presidency, rightly or wrongly just to quiet it? We believe that the country will give the spoiled child to understand that it cannot have the Presidency unless it has been fairly secured

SOUTH CAROLINA.

WASHINGTON OPINIONS OF THE SITUATION THERE

[Special to Boston Advertiser.]

WASHINGTON, Nov 22 The news which reaches here to-night from South Carolina that the Returning Board has finally decided to ignore the orders of the Supreme Court of the State, the majority of which is composed of men bitterly hostile to Chamberlain, and go ahead and count the votes cast as contemplated by law, occasions very little surprise, from the fact that this course, after a very thorough examination of the powers of the Board and of the Supreme Court itself, has been advised as the only resource left to the Board unless it desires to be wiped out of existence and the purpose for which it was created completely defeated

THE ATTORNEY-GENERAL'S OPINION

Attorney-General Taft, who has made an exhaustive examination of the law bearing upon this case, says the course pursued by the Supreme Court of the State is a gross outrage upon law and order and a mockery to justice itself, that the court has exercised functions not properly within its jurisdiction or authority, and that the Returning Board has only done right in refusing to obey its mandate, and thus test the right of the court to deprive the Board of the legal right to count the election returns in strict accordance with the letter and spirit of the law

A DEMOCRATIC PLOT

Information reached here to-day that if the Legislature was placed in the hands of the Democrats and Hampton could be installed as Governor, he would revoke the certificates given to the Hayes electors by Chamberlain and direct a recount of the votes cast, with the intention of manipulating the returns so that at least two of the Tilden electors would be declared elected. Two of the Judges of the Supreme Court are said to be a party to this plan, and certain circumstances seem to confirm the statement. The opinion is entertained here that the trouble in South Carolina are by no means ended, and that the power of the General Government will have to be manifested to settle matters

A VERSATILE JUDGE.

Judge Mackey, who is reported in to-day's despatches from Columbia, S C, as declaring that the Returning Board never claimed judicial powers until 1874, appeared before the Returning Board in 1872, when his own election was at issue, and made an argument in favor of the Board having such judicial authority, and carried the point. He was, however, defeated when the votes were all canvassed. Two years later he took the other side of the argument, in order to defeat certain men whom he expected would be counted in, and now he again wants the Board to be considered as purely ministerial, so Hampton can be made Governor and not kept out in consequence of the enormous frauds perpetrated by his party in several counties.

THE LOUISIANA RETURNING BOARD

CONGRESSMAN FRYE'S EXPLANATION OF THE ACTION OF THE CONGRESSIONAL COMMITTEE IN 1875

To the Editors of the Lewiston Journal

The misapprehensions existing as to the Louisiana Returning Board, its duties, its history, the personelle of its members, and the fact that Messrs Wheeler, Hoar and Frye of the Congressional Committee of the 43d Congress have been repeatedly quoted in condemnation of it, are my apology for this communication

The barbarisms of the white man's party" in Louisiana, have never been understood or appreciated by the people of the North The republicans have been unwilling to give credit to the terrible history, and the democrats have studiously and persistently derided and ridiculed it It is not the province of this article to review it, but a brief statement of the election of 1868 is important in establishing the necessity for the Returning Board

In the spring of 1868 there was an election, entirely peaceable, the republicans having a majority of more than 25,000 In the summer the 'White Man's Party' was formed, in the fall occurred six bloody and terrible massacres, the Bossiers Parish, the St Laundy, the Orleans, the Caddo, the Jefferson and the St Bernard

The following summary of testimony will be found in Judge Poland's report of the 42d Congress, No 22, pp 21 and 22

'The testimony shows that over two thousand persons were killed and wounded within a few weeks prior to the election, that half the state was overrun by violence, midnight raids, secret murders and open riot kept the people in constant terror until the republicans surrendered, and then the election was carried by the democracy The Parish of Orleans contained 29,910 votes, of which 15,020 were black In the spring that Parish gave 13 973 republican votes, in the fall it gave Grant 1178 Riots prevailed for weeks sweeping the city of New Orleans, and filling it with scenes of blood, while Ku Klux notices were every where posted, warning the colored men not to vote In addo there were 2,067 republican votes In the spring they carried the Parish by a large majority—in the fall they gave Grant one vote In St. Landry Parish, the republicans had a registered majority of 1071 votes, in the spring election their majority was 5,000, while in the fall they gave Grant no vote, and the democrats cast the full vote, 1787, for Seymour and Blair"

In twenty two parishes and by parishes I mean counties, 36,000 republican voters were driven from the polls and only 1 820 allowed to vote Over one thousand voters, all colored republicans, were killed It became entirely evident that elections would be only farces, or if the republicans persisted in trying to vote, bloody tragedies under the old and ordinary system of holding them

To remedy this, the Legislature took the powers hitherto vested in Commissioners of elections, and vested them, so far as the counting of the votes and making the returns was concerned, in the hands of five men who were to be the returning officers of the whole State, and also clothed them with one additional power namely—in event of a condition of things like the above occurring at an election, they, acting in a body, should be authorized to hear evidence and facts and if in their judgment such fraud, violence or terror existed in any parish as to prevent the majority of the legal voters from voting, then they should have the power to declare it a mob, and throw out the votes of that parish or poll

Such is the Returning Board of Louisiana, and without it, as one distinguished witness before our Congressional Committee said in election in that State would simply register the dictates of a murderous mob This became the law in 1872 and Gov Wells John Lynch, Gen Longstreet Mr Casnave and Louis M Kenner were elected by the Senate returning officers in January 1873 Mr Lynch resigned and P C Anderson was elected in his place by the Board The party nomenclature was then republican, conservative and liberal republican, each of these parties being represented on the Board At the last election in 1874 party names had changed, they were republican, and conservative, or white man, or 'White League"

In November, 1874, the Board met to canvass the returns The white man's party protested that they had no representation on the Board Thereupon Gen Long street resigned and Mr Arrovo selected by this party and entirely in sympathy with them, was appointed, and took an active part in their deliberations up to Dec 22, 1874, two days before the final adjournment of the Board, when he resigned During this canvass, counsel for both parties were present, protested, argued, examined and cross-examined witnesses, and the evidence before our Committee disclosed no want of fairness, no attempt at frauds, no purpose to cheat by any of the Board

I think I can safely assert that Messrs Wheeler, Hoar and Frye never found any fraudulent acts or purposes on the part of these gentlemen, nor did they or either of them ever assert privately or publicly, in conversation or in the official report, that there was any want of personal or official integrity in the performance of their duty. On the contrary, I am confident that the evidence inspired them with a profound respect for the members of the Board, and satisfied them that they did not err in their findings of fact

I quote from the report signed by Messrs Wheeler, Hoar and Frye

"We now come to the events of 1874 The campaign was inaugurated by the formation of a party designed to divide the people of Louisiana on the line of race Its convention at Baton Rouge begins its address "We, the white men of Louisiana" This party assumed various names in various localities, always indicating a purpose to make the race issue distinct . . The leaders in the press urged the people to deeds of violence . . It is impossible to state, in the space which this report can properly cover, the details of deeds of lawless violence which were proved before the committee In many Parishes the legal officers were driven out by force Republicans were murdered or compelled to fly for their lives—whatever the pretext, the real offense was their political opinions . . The White League of New Orleans itself was and is a constant menace to the republicans of the whole State. It would be dormant at any time, if not prevented by the power of the United States.

We cannot doubt that the effect of all these things was to prevent a full, free and fair election, and to intimidate the colored voters and the white republicans. The very formation of a white man's party was a menace of terrible import to those who remembered Colfax and Bossier and the convention. The press was filled with threats of violence. The agreement to discharge laborers, the discovery that guns and beasts are tamed by hunger, was evidence of the same spirit.' The overthrow of the State government by the White Leagues on the 14th of September; the turning out large numbers of parish officials by the country, compelling them to flee for their lives, the fearful lesson of Coushatta, the formation, arming, and drilling of the White League, the natural successors of the Knights of the White Camellia; these things in a community where there is no legal punishment for political murder, must, in the nature of things, have filled with terror a people timid and gentle like the colored population of Louisiana, even if we had not taken abundant evidence as to special acts of violence and crime and their effects on particular neighborhoods

In view of these facts, we do not hesitate to find that the election of 1874 was neither full, free, nor fair, that in large portions of the State the usual means of instructing and persuading the people, of organizing and conducting a campaign, could not be carried on by Republicans without danger to their lives, and that many more voters than were needed to give the Republican party a complete victory were prevented from voting at all or coerced into voting the white man's ticket.

It was to declare the result of such an election that the Returning Board met at New Orleans in 1874"

So far as the facts are concerned, this Board in no respect went beyond our own findings. But the third section of the act creating the Board provided for certain certificates of supervisors or commissioners and of this our committee said

"Upon this statute we are all clearly of opinion that the Returning Board had no right to do anything except to canvass and compile the returns which were lawfully made to them by the local officers, except in cases where they were accompanied by the certificates of the supervisor or commissioner provided in the third section In such cases, the last sentence of that section shows that it was expected that they would ordinarily exercise the grave and delicate duty of investigating charges of riot, tumult, bribery, or corruption on a hearing of the parties interested in the office It never could have been meant that this Board, of its own motion, sitting in New Orleans, at a distance from the place of voting, and without notice, could decide the right of persons claiming to be elected

The board took a different view of its powers, and proceeded to throw out the votes from many polls where they found intimidation and violence to have existed The Returning Board claims that in this proceeding they acted under an honest belief that they were right in their construction of the law, and that they were giving effect to the true will of a majority of the people of Louisiana, and that in their construction they followed the precedent set by the Democratic or fusion Returning Board of 1872 We believe they did follow such a precedent We have no doubt that they believed they were defending the people of Louisiana against a fraud on their constitutional rights"

Do not these citations justify my assertion that we never condemned this Board for any of its findings as to facts They made a mistake in their construction of the law, but to find them corrupt for this would equally condemn every judge of every court in the country

Gov Wells, chairman of the Board, was born in Louisiana, was an old Whig—a man of wealth, the owner of two large plantations, of one hundred and fifty slaves, held socially as proud a position as any, opposed secession, was driven from his home, for a year and a half hid in the wood and swamps, was hunted by bloodhounds, his property all destroyed, his family scattered In 1864 was elected Lieut-Governor of Louisiana In 1865 elected Governor by both Republicans and Democrats

He was a witness before our committee and boldly said to the two hundred rebels present, "You called me a jayhawker when I was in the swamps, but I had rather be known forever as a jayhawker than a traitor" He is a man of undaunted courage, of loyalty tried in the fire, of firm will and determined purpose I believe him to be a thoroughly honest man and I know he cannot be tempted by Democratic promises or driven by their threats

Thomas C Anderson is a Southern man a resident of Louisiana for thirty-five years a man of large wealth before the war, owned one hundred slaves and several thousands of acres of land—in politics a Whig—several times member of the Legislature also a member of the Constitutional Convention in 1852—during the rebellion acted with the South—was an officer under General Taylor and was always highly esteemed

The other two members of the Board are very respectable, intelligent colored men, both fairly educated, both men of some property, one of them owning quite a large amount of real estate

There is no ground whatever for the wholesale charges of fraud and corruption made against the Board The only fear I have is, that to escape even the suspicion of a seeming partiality to the Republicans, they may lean too much to the side, not of mercy, but of murder and outrage, the true champions of Democracy in Louisiana

Excitement in Waterville.

BOLD ATTEMPT AT BANK ROBBERY.

The Villains Foiled by the Bravery of a Watchman.

The Robbers Foiled by the Bravery of a Private Watchman

WATERVILLE, Nov 23. About midnight as Geo. Vigue, a private watchman, was going to the Waterville National Bank to lunch with the bank and town watchman, Augustus Wood, he saw two men coming from behind the bank building who almost immediately attacked him threatening his life if he made any resistance. He, with commendable courage, however, while a pistol was held at his head, cried "Murder," when they gave him a terrible blow and fled. He fired twice at them without effect. Vigue's cry and pistol shots brought several to his assistance who soon learned that Wood was missing. Being unable to find him,

A General Alarm was Given at 3 35, when a thorough search was began which resulted in finding him in a horse shed in the rear of the Catholic church, bound hands and feet, gagged, blind-folded, and ears filled with cotton. Wood states he was met on Silver street by four men, one of whom said "Good evening, you are the man we were looking for," then all four attacked him, took him to the shed, two standing guard until the report of Vigue's pistol, when one left and soon after the other. Wood thinks he could identify one, but as yet nothing has been discovered to lead to their detection.

The Citizen's Excited.

The citizens of this quiet, orderly town are very much excited over the affair. All feel that a bold prearranged plan of bank robbery has been defeated, which, but for Vigue, who has been hired for the past month only by a few individuals to watch their private residences, might have proved successful.

FROM AUGUSTA.

Amendments to the Savings Bank Laws.

AUGUSTA, Nov 23. At the last session of the Legislature Commissioners were appointed to codify and amend the Savings Bank Laws of the State. They have been at work upon the subject for several months and to-day met in this city to perfect a bill which is to be submitted to the next Legislature. It is understood the main features of the bill have been decided upon.

They recommend limiting the semi-annual dividends to 2½ per cent. instead of 3 as now authorized and the reduction of the bank tax from ½ to ⅓ of one per cent semi-annually, also, that money shall not be loaned on the security of names solely.

DOMESTIC NEWS.

VERMONT.

A Silly Attempt to Steal an Elector.

MONTPELIER, Nov. 23. A protest was served on the Governor to-day by the counsel of Aldrich, one of the Democratic candidates for Elector, against the issuing of a certificate to H N Solace, on the ground that he was a postmaster and ineligible.

[The above action is merely political clap-trap, as the laws of the State fully provide for all contingencies affecting the Electoral votes.—ED.]

WASHINGTON.

The Naval and Military Sensation.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 23. Secretary Robeson laughingly expressed surprise to-day that a rumor should have been circulated regarding extensive naval movements, as the only order in that direction recently issued by the department was for the two vessels which had been at Philadelphia during the Centennial exhibition to return to their station at Hampton Roads.

BOSS TWEED

He Arrives at New York in the Prankline.

NEW YORK, Nov. 23. At this hour (2.50 P. M.) the U. S Frigate Franklin is slowly coming up the harbor towards quarantine, Sheriff Connor, Commodore Nicholson, and U. S. District Attorney Bliss are on board. On arriving at upper quarantine station Tweed will probably be put in charge of Sheriff Connor, who will take him to quarters prepared for him sometime ago in Ludlow street jail.

Tweed Taken to his Quarters

Wm. M. Tweed landed this afternoon at the foot of Grand street, North River, from the Revenue cutter, and was taken in a carriage by Sheriff Connor and Deputies to Ludlow street jail. His only remark on being admitted to his cell by Warden Watson was. "I thought I would come and see you again." No one will be allowed to see him to-night and no one but the watchman will be permitted to enter the corridor. He will be treated precisely as other prisoners and allowed no privileges. His rooms are much smaller than those previously occupied. No access can be had to his apartment, except through the warden's room, while in the corridor a watchman is continually on guard.

The Board Conforming to Law.

NEW YORK, Nov 23. A Columbia, S C, despatch to the Herald says the action of the Canvass Board is based upon the law which requires the canvass of the vote to be performed in ten days, which time expired yesterday at 12 o'clock.

The Vote on the Laurens and Edgefield Returns.

A Columbia, S. C., despatch to the Herald gives the following as the action of the Board before adjourning. On the question as to whether the statement of County Canvassers of Laurens County should be included in the statement of the determination of the Board, the vote was yeas 2, nays 3. Those voting negative were the Adjutant and Inspector General, Comptroller General and State Treasurer; in the affirmative Secretary of State and Attorney General. On the same question as to the County of Edgefield all the members of the Board except the Secretary of State voted for its exclusion.

The Times' Report of the Action of the Board.

A Columbia despatch to the Times says the Court yesterday adjourned to Friday to hear argument on a new mandamus asked for by the Democratic counsel relative to the action of the Board on the Presidential election. Meantime the Board of Canvassers who held their session at the other end of the Capitol had taken action which will greatly simplify it if does not render unnecessary any further proceedings before the Court in reference to their powers and duties.

The Law of South Carolina

as interpreted by the Board and always acted upon heretofore, require the Board to complete their work as State Canvassers within ten days from the time they commence their sessions, Sunday excepted. The time expired at noon. There is a difference of opinion among lawyers as to the true interpretation of the statutes, but at all events there is no law and has been no order of Court requiring them to sit longer than the ten days they have been accustomed to sit. The Board therefore completed its work and adjourned sine die at the expiration of that time and is no longer in existence.

Certificates of Election

were yesterday sent to those declared elected by the Board. No certificates were issued to either party in Laurens or Edgefield counties. The Board gives as a reason for their adjournment sine die that it was to prevent the possibility of the Democrats getting advantage hereafter on the pretense that the Board had not complied with the law. Ex-Attorney-General Akerman, and all other Republican lawyers in Columbia agree with him, is of the opinion there has been no contempt of court.

The World's Report of an Interview with Gov. Chamberlain

The World's Columbia despatch says Gov. Chamberlain last night sustained the action of the Board of Canvassers, saying that under the law they could not do otherwise. He does not admit the power of the Supreme Court to control the action of the Board during the time of its existence, and is certain that the Court has no power to extend that time. He says the Board is not guilty of contempt, but would have been if the Court had in the first place issued a restraining order which has not been done. The interview concluded as follows:

Could the U S Court in any way interfere with the State matters?

Governor—Yes, the Court might say, for instance, that orders to reconvene the Board of Canvassers for any purpose would affect federal officials and might interfere and stop such proceedings.

Reporter—If the Legislature as organized by action of the Board should declare you Governor would you stick?

Governor—If the Legislature as finally organized should throw out certain counties whose returns have been attacked because of frauds, and by their action I should be elected, I would certainly stick.

Reporter—Do you think you have been elected?

Governor—Certainly. It is my opinion that by an honest count I have not less than 8,000 majority.

The Court Issues an Order to Reconvene

Later—World's Columbia special—The Court has issued an order reconvening the Board of Canvassers to-morrow. A member of the Board assures me that he will not obey it and characterizes the Court as a pack of scoundrels.

Homicide by a State Senator.

Thomas Dent, son of the Sheriff of Richland County, was shot and fatally wounded by State Senator John Cochrane of Anderson County here to-night. The difficulty grew out of political discussion.

A Columbia Democratic View of the Situation.

COLUMBIA, Nov. 23. Considerable excitement is reported throughout the State, but no demonstration of violence or lawlessness. The action of the Board of State Canvassers is considered final by the Republicans, while Democrats claim it has no effect because the whole question was in the hands of the Supreme Court, and that the Board is guilty of contempt. They express a determination to continue in the courts and bring the matter to a conclusion there. Last night the Democratic counsel served a writ of mandamus issued yesterday by the court, on the officials composing the Board. The Supreme Court will meet to-morrow to hear the return of the Board.

One of the Board Resigns his State Office.

H. W. Purvis, Adjutant and Inspector-General and a member of the Board of Canvassers, says he resigns his office.

What the N. Y. Post Says.

The Post editorially says the best thing the South Carolina Board of Canvassers can do is to reassemble, as it is reported the Supreme Court of the State has ordered it to do. The country will not be satisfied with proceedings which look like sharp practice. We admit that the Supreme Court itself is not free from a suspicion of sharp practice, but no appearance of judicial sharp practice can excuse that of the Canvassers. It is better that a decision which is wrong shall be obeyed than that it shall be disobeyed even to secure a right end.

The Commercial Advertiser Says

The action of the South Carolina Board of Canvassers has had a tremendous effect on certain Democrats, but then, everything has, which seems to favor the Republicans and they are fairly beside themselves to-day. They charge that the Board has been guilty of contempt for not waiting until the mandamus should be served on them and indulge in all kind of nonsense. If the Board has adjourned the courts still remain and if anything has been done irregularly it will do them no good all night. That is not the point, we imagine. The Democrats know the Board did its whole duty, but their plan being to yell 'fraud' at every opportunity, they keep it up now to be consistent."

FLORIDA.

Attempts to Corrupt the Canvassers

NEW YORK, Nov. 23. A Tallahassee letter to the Tribune says that ineffectual efforts have been made in two instances to bribe Republican members of the Canvassing Board in the interest of Tilden.

Attempted Democratic Obstructions will not Avail

W E Chandler telegraphs as follows relative to the pending injunction and mandamus proceedings, "If Judge White undertakes to determine a question over which he has no jurisdiction, his action will be disregarded or can be prohibited by the action of the Supreme Court of the State or of the United States Court. If the Canvassing Board of the State, when dealing with the Electoral vote, is performing federal duties, the federal courts have jurisdiction to protect it in the discharge of duties in which the United States have direct interest. When the Governor or Board gets ready to act, they will undoubtedly proceed untrammelled by any suggestions, orders or interference of any one outside the seven inferior local judges who happen to have jurisdiction over petty cases in the county of Leon, in which the Florida State House House is situated. Meantime the Republicans are anxious to have Democrats hurry up the returns from the county of Lafayette, usually casting about 300 Democratic to 500 Republican votes."

The Herald's Tallahassee despatch says that both Kasson and Chandler are quite sick.

The Full Official Returns Give the State to Hayes over all the Frauds

WASHINGTON, Nov. 23. Ev g—A telegram from Tallahassee to the Republican National Committee says the official returns from all the counties in Florida are in, and on their face show 763 majority for Hayes.

Democratic Account of the Court Proceedings

TALLAHASSEE, Nov, 23. The court before which the case of the injunctions against the Governor and mandamus of the Returning Board was to be tried met at 11 o'clock this forenoon. The Court room was crowded to its utmost. The Governor presented through counsel an affidavit in which he states he had never made up his mind to canvass the votes and had not stated to any one that he had done so, that even up to the present writing he had not decided that he was empowered to canvass the votes.

The Democratic Counsel.

disregarding this affidavit, argued through Geo P Raney that the Governor had no right to canvass the Electoral vote, but that such right resided in the Canvassing Board, and further that the Court did have jurisdiction over the Governor, not in restraining from doing what he was empowered by law to do, but in restraining him from performing an act he had no right to perform under the law.

Gen Barlow appears for the Governor —He emphatically denies the Jurisdiction of the Court.

Gen. Barlow, of N. Y., replied on behalf of the Governor and denied the jurisdiction of the Court. He said the injunction issued against the Governor by the Judge on the Bench would have no more effect than if it were issued by a private individual. He adjured the Judge to carefully consider the risk he run in issuing a writ of injunction that could not be enforced by any legitimate procedure if the Governor was determined to resist it. Gen Barlow did not enter into the merits of the case at all, but merely stood on the lack of jurisdiction on the part of the Court.

The Judge's Conclusion Deferred

At the close of the argument the Court adjourned. A decision will probably be reached to-morrow. There is some excitement in the city. It is very generally believed that the Governor will not obey the injunction even if issued to-morrow. The Republicans all deny that the Court has a shadow of jurisdiction.

Democratic Denial of the Washington Report and a Word thrown in for Tilden

A despatch has been telegraphed back to this point from Washington in which it is said the official returns are all in, and that the face of the returns show a majority of 763 for Hayes. It is impossible to find any confirmation of this report, indeed, the secretary of State says this evening that three counties, Dade, Brevard and Lafayette have not been heard from. The wildest figures cannot show a majority of 763 for Hayes or Tilden, the difference will hardly be 200 either way, the chances favoring the Democrats.

LOUISIANA.

Reported Conspiracy to Bribe Members of the Board

NEW YORK, Nov 23. A New Orleans special to the Times says it is reported that the reason the Returning Board has not filled the vacancy by appointing a Democrat was that local Republicans had unearthed a conspiracy between the Democrats and the two colored members of the Board, Cassanove and Kenner. By the terms of this reported agreement the members named were to act in concert with the Democrat who should be appointed and with him count in the whole Democratic ticket. For this treason to their party they were to receive $100,000 each. Packard and Kellogg disclaim all knowledge of this transaction.

Letters Threatening the Life of the President of the Board.

Ex-Governor J. Madison Wells, President of the Returning Board, has received numerous threatening letters, the last one yesterday, which was read to the Board as follows:

New York, Nov. 18th, 1876

Mr. Madison Wells:—Although a stranger to you, and God knows I wish I may always continue to be one, I wish to say a few words to you and give you a little advice. If by and through your means and the Board of Returners with which you are associated, Samuel J. Tilden should be cheated out of his legal election, of which here in the North there is no earthly doubt, I would not give the value of a glass of whiskey for your life; for five of us have taken as solemn an oath as can be taken and we have sworn to have your heart's blood in case the farce of counting the votes is pursued in the manner we see by the papers you and the rest of your radical, nigger tools of a drunken loafer like Grant. Sir, look to your life, and for fear you may think this is a mere scare-crow letter, we five are not afraid to subscribe our names and defy you to do your best, and what is more, we are all American born.

ELIHU GOODWIN,
SAM. HEATH,
CHARLES HUNT,
JAMES KEELE,
PHIL LISK.

The return so far as made shows a Republican majority.

Session of the Board.

NEW ORLEANS, Nov. 23. The Returning Board met at 11.30, the committees of Northern Republicans and Democrats being in attendance. Mr. Spofford, counsel for Democratic candidates, submitted a paper setting forth that Supervisors of Registration for 14 parishes had not filed their returns, although many of them were in the city, and moved that they be ordered to bring their returns before the Board forthwith. On motion of Gen. Anderson the Secretary was instructed by the Board to issue orders to all Supervisors in the city to file their returns immediately.

A request was also made by the Democratic counsel that they be notified as to the order in which contested parishes would be taken up, in order to summon witnesses. President Wells said the rules governing the Board could not be changed; that notice would be given when a contested parish was to be considered, but that no regular order was established. It was agreed that East Baton Rouge shall be the first contested parish taken up.

More Protests, etc.

Col. Zacharie presented a letter from the Democratic Committee urging the Board to appoint Dr. Kennedy to fill the vacancy, and a request for representation among the clerks. Gov. Wells said the clerical force had been completed and they could not make any vacancy. The vacancy in the Board was under consideration. Colonel Zacharie then presented numerous protests, objections and affidavits with reference to various polling places, etc.

Three Parishes Canvassed.

The Board to-day completed the canvass of only three Parishes as follows:

	Tilden.	Hayes.
Natchitoches,	1,767	2,099
Union,	1,493	94
Iberville,	957	2,207

At one poll in Natchitoches the Board threw out 542 votes for three Republican Electors and 173 votes for three Democratic Electors on account of informalities. The vote for five Republican Electors in Natchitoches was 1558. In Iberville five Republican Electors received only 1,948 votes instead of 2,207 owing to the omission of names on the ballots. The Board will probably take up contested parishes to-morrow.

THE ART ASSOCIATION. Last evening the pleasant rooms of the Bangor Art Association were filled with members and their friends and dedicated with very appropriate exercises, consisting of several musical selections by Andrews' Orchestra, an opening address by the President Dr A C Hamlin, in which he referred particulary to the cultivation of a taste for art, and the benefits and necessity for the teaching of drawing in public schools. He was followed in a brief address by Rev. Dr. Field, who spoke of art in its relation to morals, and when he had concluded the company entered into the social part of the exercises. Refreshments were served and the occasion was very pleasant and satisfactory to all in attendance. The rooms were decorated with a collection of oil paintings, chromos, pastels, crayons, etc., loaned by members, which would form a study for hours and to which the reporter would do an injustice were he to speak of them in detail after no more than a hurried glance in passing round the rooms, which were too much crowded to admit of more than this. The curiosities exhibited, though not numerous, were well worth the more than a casual glance one was able to give them. This winter the Association will hold regular meetings fortnightly and special meetings when there are matters of interest to be laid before the organization. A series of lectures on art and science will be given during the winter, and the season will be one not only pleasant to the members, but profitable in a variety of ways. The membership, as we have already stated, approaches three hundred, and the prospects of the Association are bright for a long and very useful existence.

ABOUT GETTING DRUNK.

Jere O'Leary's Advice to his Namesake.

We have received the following letter which the writer requests us to publish for the satisfaction of his friends and for the possible benefit of the party of the same name who has got into trouble through intemperance.

MONSON, Nov 22, 1876

To Jere O'Leary, Bangor,

DEAR SIR:—I see by Monday's WHIG AND COURIER that you were fined $3 and costs for drunkenness.

Now, my name is Jere O'Leary, and my friends away from here have supposed that it was I who got drunk and was fined. Now I want you either to change your name or stop getting drunk.

My advice to you is to stop drinking. I used to drink, but I have found a better way. I am now an Iron-clad and I advise you to sign the pledge.

Your friend,
JERE O'LEARY.

Business Items.

REASONS for using the EUREKA SPOOL SILK.—It is full size. It is full length. It is smooth and elastic, and equally adapted to hand or machine use. 1t

A few weeks since we spent an hour very pleasantly in Steiert Bros' greenhouses, No 3,670 Washington St., Boston. F. A. Howard, the proprietor, took us in his buggy, and no doubt enjoyed showing us the paces of the "best horse in the world" as much as we did the fine ride to his grounds.

These houses comprise in all nearly one thousand feet in length under glass. There are panes enough to make nine miles in length if laid one after the other. There is one house one hundred and thirty feet in length devoted wholly to roses, two houses the same length each, one devoted to white pinks and the other to colored ones, an other the same length devoted to roses, honeysuckles and miscellaneous flowers, one one hundred feet in length, for the propagation of plants, etc., and others devoted more particularly for show houses for Mr. Howard's private conservatory, etc.

Messrs. Steiert Bros are trained florists in the best gardens in France and their houses are constantly enriched by importations of all the novelties of Europe. We were much interested by a very recent importation of rare and curious plants, among which were a great number of cacti, new to us, at least, and rare, we presume, to most of our readers.

Though Messrs. Steiert Bros have so much space devoted to the more staple plants, such as roses, pinks, etc., their stock of ferns, begonias and of plants for fernleaves is rich and varied.

They make a specialty of floral designs and will furnish at the shortest notice wreaths for funeral or wedding occasions, for the decoration of halls or for any other purpose, while the immense stock they carry, enables them to defy competition as to prices.

They may be addressed at BRADBURY'S DRUG STORE, 443 or 3670 Washington St., Boston. 1t

THE unprecedented sale of the EUREKA MACHINE TWIST is accounted for from the fact that those who use it once will use no other. 1t nov22

TIME MERIT WILL WIN. A few years since the proprietors of Dr. Morris' Syrup of Tar, Wild Cherry and Horehound introduced it here. It was not puffed, but sold on its merits. Our people soon found it to be reliable and already it has become the most staple and popular pulmonary remedy in the market. It quickly cures the worst coughs, colds, croup, bronchitis, asthma and incipient consumption. Nothing acts so nicely in whooping-cough, and it is so pleasant that children readily take it. Containing no opium, or other dangerous drug it is as safe as it is sure. Trial size, 10 cts., large sizes 50 cents and One Dollar. Sold by Wm E Mann and J F Patten, N S Hurlow, Bangor; R B Stover, Bucksport.

Also Agents for Prof. Parker's Pleasant Worm Syrup, which never fails. Pleasant to take and requires no physic. Price 25 cts. deow oct7

To Worry the Liver

And injure the system generally, take blue pills and calomel. To regulate it, and endow the entire system with healthful vigor, use Hostetter's Stomach Bitters. Bilious invalids, which of these two recipes will you adopt? We doubt not, the latter. By so doing, you will avoid the disastrous consequences which the persistent or frequent use of mercury entails, and appreciate the desired reform in the action of the biliary gland without danger, as well as speedily and thoroughly. The Bitters invariably remedy yellowness of the complexion and whites of the eyes, pains in the right side and, under the right shoulder-blade, furred tongue, high colored urine, nausea, vertigo, dyspepsia, constipation, heaviness of the head, nervous prostration, and every other manifestation or accompaniment of a disordered condition of the liver. The stomach, bowels and kidneys also experience their regulating and tonic influence. d&w nov20
